TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

It is positively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to CHARLES MCCABE, Southern Passenger Agent, near College street Depot, Nashville, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

City Taxes.

The notice has been published that to-day is the last day in which to pay city taxes, and coming at this time, during a great financial crisis, we fear it will work a great hardship to many of our citizens. In the State taxes the Sheriff has no discretion. The money must come, or lands be sold, but not so with the city. The Mayor can call a meeting of the Board of Aldermen, and the time can be extended. The Northern panic has delayed the movement of our crops and a consequent delay of business, so that it is very inconvenient for many to pay their taxes at this time. It seems to us that the welfare of the city demands a short extension of time.

Charity.

Another day and the second month of Autumn will be here. Soon we will have the pittiless storm and chilling winds, and thousands will suffer for comfortable shelters and genial heat. These unfortunates have a claim upon us we cannot escape, and the hand of the generous is often opened for their relief. This year we have another claim upon us, great in its aims, and noble beyond compare. Hundreds of helpless children, who would otherwise be dependent upon local charities and compelled to eke out a miserable existence, often suffering for daily bread, are now gathered under a welcome roof and taught that a good God watches over them all their days. Genial care bestowed upon them, the fountain of knowledge opened to them, learning to desire something nobler and better than their former life, they are growing up, the wards of the people. God bless the founders of the Oxford Orphan Asylum! The good it is accomplishing cannot be estimated by money values, for its beneficent influence will extend to the end of time. Its mission, to make honest men and women of many who otherwise might become vagabonds and thieves, will be accomplished, and the gifts it requires should be bestowed upon the [illegible] no miserly hand. The season is rapidly advancing, and almost everything is needed—clothing, fuel and food. This great trinity of blessings should never be wanting, and we sincerely hope no little one will feel the bitterness of hunger or cold during the long months to come. The necessity of this aid is known to every reader of THE POST, for we have often referred to it. But so far Wilmington has done but little, except to send destitute children to the Asylum. It is also understood, we believe, that nothing sectarian is taught there, and that though the property belongs to the Masonic Fraternity and the Grand Lodge gives the rent of the property and five hundred dollars in money, that all children are welcomed, whether their fathers supported the Order or not. So that this charity appeals to every one who has a heart which beats responsive to human woes, and whose does not?

In such permanent charities, no one can do too much, for there is always need of something, and money is the most acceptable gift that can be bestowed. No one denies the importance or the appropriateness of this charity, so that the only question to be considered is, how can funds be raised expeditionsly and easily. Several plans have been discussed, among them is an amateur concert, and we have every reason to believe that this design will be carried out in a few days. An opportunity will then be afforded for all who are interested in this great work to cast in their mites for its benefit. Will our people be charitable enough to patronise a concert for the benefit of these orphans? Is there a Mason, or an Odd-Fellow, or a Knight of Pythias in this city who has not learned Charity and Benevolence? Will they patronize this concert?

The month of October will be unusually prolific with shows and exhibitions of various kinds, but this charity appeals so strongly to our citizens that we expect to see them turn out en masse on this occasion to hear some fine music and to aid the good work. To-morrow we hope arrangements will be completed, so that the formal announcements can be made.

Ex-Gov. Swann, of Maryland, says he has refused to accept his back pay, and that when he next visits Washington he intends to take such action as will result in its absorption by the United States Treasury. Being so far from Washington, it has taken him a long time to get around to this.

The Situation.

Affairs seem to be brighter and a more hopeful tone marks the Northern press. The following is from the New York Herald of Sunday:

There is nothing new in the financial situation, except the announcement that the Stock Exchange is to be re-opened on Tuesday. Public confidence is in a great measure restored and ordinary business has gone on so smoothly during the week in its ordinary channels that no danger is to be anticipated. The only danger, as we remarked the other day, is in a sudden bounding of stocks consequent upon the reaction, and this fear is already realized in some degree. Stocks went up yesterday from two to fifteen per cent., but are not yet above the ruling prices previous to the panic. It is to be hoped that when the Stock Exchange opens this preliminary rebound will mark the extent of the rise. Indeed, it was scarcely fair at any time to assume that the depression was as great as it seemed, and the fact that money was more abundant yesterday at reasonable rates than at any time during the panic, proves that business was only waiting for the return of confidence to go on again as if nothing had occurred to disturb it. If money remains easy and public confidence continues, the financial flurry may be said to be over.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

— There were nine English railway accidents on Saturday, but no one killed.

— His Highness Mulcy Abbas, brother of the deceased Emperor of Morocco, has been proclaimed as his successor.

— The Vox Publica, of Matamoras, states that an armed body of United States soldies crossed from Texas into Mexico, about forty miles above that city, but for what purpose is unknown. It calls on the authorities to investigate the matter, and warns the Mexicans that such expeditions are premeditated, and urges them to be on the alert to repel such invasions when occasion may require. In consequence of the apprehended revolution in Monterey the annual fair, which should take place in that city this month, and which has hitherto been an event of much importance, has been abandoned.

— The British steam sloop Niobe has arrived at Kingston, Jamaica, from Omaa, Honduras, bringing the following intelligence: General Estraba's troops, after assassinating the detachment of Palacio's forces, which, under a flag of truce, approached the fort, sacked Omoa, and imprisoned all the British subjects, gutted the Consulates of America, England, Spain and Portugal, tore the American flag to pieces and sacked the merchants' warehouses and safes, leaving them a perfect wreck.—The Niobe soon after arrived and demanded the surrender of the imprisoned foreigners and explanations for the outrage. The authorities were obstinate and refused to accede to the demands of the commander of the Niobe, when a bombardment followed until a flag of truce was hoisted. The prisoners were surrendered, and compensation was guaranteed.

Gratifying Intelligence from Africa.

The American Geographical Society has received a highly important letter from Gaboon, on the West Coast of Africa, describing the operations of the German, English and French expeditions. At last there seems to be a serious effort to penetrate the mysterious regions inhabited by anthropoid monkeys, pigmies and savage pagans. The importance of these enterprises cannot be over-estimated, and we hope that the three expeditions will act in harmony. If they do, a great deal can be accomplished. Heretofore the results achieved by travellers as bearing directly on the ethnology of the negro tribes, have been of little value, if we except the labors of Dr. Schweinfurth, the distinguished German explorer.—It is this problem of race—which must be solved to the satisfaction of the world. Darwin has raised reasonable doubts as to the origin of the human family; and it is in these regions eastward from Gaboon that the proofs of his correctness or error can certainly be found.—Nor are we blind to the advantages of an open highway across the Equatorial regions of Central Africa, passing through yet unknown peoples and skirting the fountain-heads of the Nile, and delivering into the Indian Ocean. Dr. Bushnell speaks with pardonable enthusiam of these purposes in view, but he could not close his letter without a sight for a "Stanley-like" American.—N. Y. Herald.

King Victor Emmanuel, from his little confidential conversation at Berlin with Prince Bismarc, has returned homeward, satisfied, most likely, that if the Bourbons of France undertake to turn the King out of Rome, they will rue the day. That this Roman question was the business of the King's late visit to Austria and Germany, we cannot doubt.—N. Y. Herald.

The Golden Age thus ridicules the people who are indulging in the Cæsarism bugaboo: "There are people who, when they go to a wedding and look upon the blushing bride and happy bridegroom, wonder how long the marrage will last; how soon one of the twain will die; whether the other will marry, what sort of a match the other will turn ont to be, and whether there will be a third succeeding wedding."

The labor of the body relieves us from the fatigues of the mind; and this it is which forms the happiness of the poor.

READ J. M. Wise's notice to colored people.

A BRIGHT sunny day cheered the laborers to-day, but at noon the accustomed rain fell.

THERE was no Mayor's Court this morning, as sinners are all well behaved. They deserve congratulation.

PERSONS in want of crockery will do well to attend the sale on Market street under the Masonic Hall to-night. See advertisement.

WE publish a communication to-day from a Magistrate, to which we invite attention. There is certainly wrong existing somewhere, and we hope it will be properly adjusted.

THANKS.—We return thanks to Mr. Otto Schutze, Signal Observer at this port, for a copy of the "Annual Report of the Chief Signal Office," which is a valuable book for reference.

THE merry songs of the stevedores, as they bring out the cargoes from the vessels in port, while not particularly musical, accelerates the process of hoisting bags. We will therefore acquiesce in the inevitable and remain patient.

THEATRICAL.—We are happy to announce that Miss Lillie Eldridge, supported by a full dramatic company, will appear in this city at the Opera House on the 16th, 17th and 18th of October next. Among her repertoire can be found Romeo and Juliet, Alma, Mignon, Olive, Hunchback, Lady of Lyons, etc. She is supported by Mr. Harry Langdon as leading man, and we think the occasion will prove one of rare enjoyment.

NEW SCHOONER.—After we went to press yesterday the new schooner "Anna W. Barker" arrived at G. G. Barker & Co's wharf. We published a description of her some time ago. She was built in Maine, for this firm, to ply between Boston and this city, and is named in honor of G. G. Barker's wife. She is a beautiful vessel and we hope no storms or unforeseen disasters will overtake her, and that she will be a welcome guest in these waters for many years.

For the Post.

BEFORE W. H. MOORE, J. P.

E. F. Martin, policeman, refused to let a deputized officer serve a State warrant on him, and bound over to the next term of Superior Court for the sum of two hundred dollars to answer the charge; also, he committed an assault and battery upon J. W. Whitney, in which case he was fined $25 and cost.—An appeal was asked: granted. He gave a bond of $200 for his appearance to the next term Superior Court. The said E. F. last week, in open Court, declared that if J. W. Whitney ever tried to serve a warrant on him, he would lock him up in the guardhouse;" and it seems he carried out his threats.

Moses Whiting was fined $10 on yesterday for contempt of Court; and it was stated in the Journal that he gave a bond Saturday night for his appearance at my Court on Monday morning. I deny it, he gave no bond.

Isaac Baker, assault and battery upon Alfred Benton, fined $1 and cost.

James Baker, assault on Alfred Benton, fined $1 and cost.

BEFORE W. H. MOORE, J. P.—30th inst. E. F. Martin, assault and battery upon Scipio Hill, fined $5 and costs. Appeal was asked and granted; gave bond for $100.

The case of Moses Whiting continued until to-morrow morning; also that of Henry Robinson.

Give me fair play!

— The city clock got on a spree last night. We noticed it struck 3 when our watch said 2 o'clock. Now, here is an example for commercial students.—At 1 o'clock the strike was 100 per cent. too large; at 2 o'clock it was only 50 per cent., etc. How long before the per centage would be reduced to correspond with the correct time?

DAY OF ATONEMENT.—At 6 o'clock to-night commences the most solemn fast in the Jewish year. During the next twenty-four hours no nourishment, not even warer, will be taken by the Jews, and of course all their stores will be closed.

SMALL GAME.—Our city editor is absent, and as a natural sequence items come very scarce, and are hard to find. So we jump at the slightest chance.—To-day a mule, which furnishes the motive power to one of the street cars, became frightened, and made a quick forward movement. This was new tactics, and of course the coupling broke. His muleship was recaptured, and the coupling arranged, and the car proceeded on its way. Nobody hurt, and nobody to blame. It's all quiet along the lines.

GRAND OPENING.—The Grand Opening announced to take place last evening at B. Weill's, was indeed a fine affair. The entire establishment was brilliantly illuminated from cellar to dome, and the bewildering display of brilliant goods was enough to daze a man more conversant with dry goods than we are. Long lines of bright fabrics, lace and colored shawls, knit garments of most attractive shades, silks, plumes, white goods, cloaks, dresses, piece goods, sashes, ribbons, etc., etc., were grouped and festooned in a style which at once stamped the gentlemanly salesmen of the establishment as men who know their business in every sense of the word.

The Raleigh News learns that as the the criminal docket of the approaching Wake county Superior Court is likely to occupy all the term, Judge Watts will not call over the civil docket to permit judgements to be taken on plain actions of debt.

Wilmington should take a lesson from Charlotte in the matter of starting a cotton factory, as the business men of that place are moving earnestly and determinedly, and have appointed a committee of the best citizens to make the necessary arrangements, to report at an adjourned meeting to be held there on Thursday night.

I. O. Good Templars.

MR. EDITOR: By giving this an insertion in the POST you will not only confer a lasting favor upon your correspondent, but upon the members of Troy Lodge No. 63, which was organized in this city on last Friday evening with twenty-three charter members, who have gone into this noble Order with the avowed intention of benefiting mankind in general. We as a body collectively, are determined to build up this institution, and with this as our motto and mark we shall not leave a stone unturned, or a bush unbeat, so to speak, until we succeed in making it one of the most successful, durable and beneficial societies of the 19th century.

We have united ourselves for the purpose of waging war against liquor traffic, and in turning both young and old from the most damnable vice known, to-wit, drunkenness, and instructing them in a life of sobriety, which will inevitably be the means of raising our young men to positions of high honor and distinction in this glorious country. But, Mr. Editor, to do this successfully, we must have the aid and countenance of our citizens; and we therefore earnestly appeal to the ladies and gentlemen to come forward and connect themselves with our praiseworthy Order, and assist us in this laudable undertaking. If they will but do this they will not only be conferring a debt of gratitude upon the entire community, but will be doing a deed of charity that will be enrolled in their favor in high Heaven.

We know that from time immemorial temperance organizations have been frowned down by the populace, and it is a sad reproach upon our fair city, with her 18,000 inhabitants, that they receive no more encouragement than they do in our midst. Why, Mr. Editor—our sister towns and cities, with a population comparatively insignificant to Wilmington, boast of several Lodges of Templars in each, numbering a membership ranging from one hundred to three hundred; and should this fact alone not awaken our people to a full sense of shame and indignation, to see our boasted city, with all her magnificent buildings and commercial improvements, be so very far behind the age in this the most laudable of all philanthropic Orders? We seek to reclaim the drunkard, bury the dead, and educate and assist the orphan and widow.

Then, ladies and gentlemen, old and young, we appeal to you in the name of suffering humanity to come at once and enrol yourselves in our ranks. We will hoist the temperance banner, and, fully armed and equipped, march forward, determined to beat down King Alcohol and his evil attendants, upon the highways and hedgeways, searching for them in every nook and corner, routing them on all sides, and the joyful tidings of victory will soon ascend, making the hills and valleys ring with our battle cry of glory to God, the drunkard is reclaimed! and ever more peace and prosperity shall reign over our sunny land.

Respectfully, ADA.

Mere vulgar wealth, without liberality and public spirit, is the bane of any live and progressive community.

The Stock Exchange and vicinity is crowded. The members crowded around the President's desk, waving their hats and cheering. The President said: "We are met again after a very momentous suspension, for the purpose of resuming business. Your action in the interim has met with universal approbation, and has been most satisfactory to yourselves. Business would be carried on under the rules adopted yesterday by the Governing Committee, which he read, and appointed a committee to settle the contracts of defaulting parties. In conclusion, he added:—"All I ask now is that you help each other to bear the burden that has fallen upon us, and to so conduct business as to enable the Exchange to carry on its work successfully." Loud cheering greeted these remarks and the members proceeded with business. A much better feeling appears to exist, and the opening prices of stocks shows a feeling of confidence.

LATER—Owing to a considerable pressure to sell, stocks declined 1 to 3 per cent. from the opening prices. The brokers are indisposed to operate for customers on margins until affairs are more settled.

The Howard Association have opened an Orphan Asylum, which feeds nearly two-thirds of the population.

The fever, beyond question, the doctors say, was imported from Cuba.

An appeal for relief says that seven hundred are sick. The peculiar character of the disease requires skillful attention and nursing. Hundreds are without means or employment, and the destitution is as heartrending as the disease itself. We feel that the great public heart will respond to this appeal, extorted by the most dire necessity.—Our own resources are nearly exhausted. The wealthy are broken down, and the poor are threatened with actual starvation. The sick and dying are about to be deprived of the commonest comforts that humanity can offer them. We appeal not only to our fellow-countrymen, but to our fellow-man, for aid.
